Opinion Statement

We conclude that the Sinyi Development 2022 Sustainability Report provides a fair view of the Sinyi Development sustainability programmes and performances during 2022. The sustainability report subject to assurance is free from material misstatement based upon testing within the limitations of the scope of the assurance, the information and data provided by the Sinyi Development and the sample taken. We believe that the performance information of Environment, Social and Governance (ESG) are fairly represented. The sustainability performance information disclosed in the report demonstrate Sinyi Development's efforts recognized by its stakeholders.

Our work was carried out by a team of sustainability report assurers in accordance with the AA1000AS v3. We planned and performed this part of our work to obtain the necessary information and explanations we considered to provide sufficient evidence that Sinyi Development's description of their approach to AA1000AS v3 and their self-declaration in accordance with GRI Standards were fairly stated.

Methodology

Our work was designed to gather evidence on which to base our conclusion. We undertook the following activities:

- a review of issues raised by external parties that could be relevant to Sinyi Development's policies to provide a check on the appropriateness of statements made in the report.
- discussion with managers on approach to stakeholder engagement. However, we had no direct contact with external stakeholders.
- 3 interviews with staffs involved in sustainability management, report preparation and provision of report information were carried out.
- review of key organizational developments.
- review of the findings of internal audits.
- review of supporting evidence for claims made in the reports.
- an assessment of the organization's reporting and management processes concerning this reporting against the principles of Inclusivity, Materiality, Responsiveness and Impact as described in the AA1000AP (2018).
- an assessment of the organization's use of metrics or targets of SASB Standard(s) to assess and manage topic-related risks and opportunities.

Conclusions

A detailed review against the Inclusivity, Materiality, Responsiveness and Impact of AA1000AP (2018), GRI Standards and SASB Standard(s) is set out below:

Inclusivity

This report has reflected a fact that Sinyi Development has continually sought the engagement of its stakeholders and established material sustainability topics, as the participation of stakeholders has been conducted in developing and achieving an accountable and strategic response to sustainability. There are fair reporting and disclosures for the information of Environment, Social and Governance (ESG) in this report, so that appropriate planning and target-setting can be supported. In our professional opinion the report covers the Sinyi Development's inclusivity issues.

Materiality

Sinyi Development publishes material topics that will substantively influence and impact the assessments, decisions, actions and performance of Sinyi Development and its stakeholders. The sustainability information disclosed enables its stakeholders to make informed judgements about the Sinyi Development's management and performance. In our professional opinion the report covers the Sinyi Development's material issues.

Responsiveness

Sinyi Development has implemented the practice to respond to the expectations and perceptions of its stakeholders. An Ethical Policy for Sinyi Development is developed and continually provides the opportunity to further enhance Sinyi Development's responsiveness to stakeholder concerns. Topics that stakeholder concern about have been responded timely. In our professional opinion the report covers the Sinyi Development's responsiveness issues.

Impact

Sinyi Development has identified and fairly represented impacts that were measured and disclosed in probably balanced and effective way. Sinyi Development has established processes to monitor, measure, evaluate and manage impacts that lead to more effective decision-making and results-based management within the organization. In our professional opinion the report covers the Sinyi Development's impact issues.
